A CASE OF NECESSITY.—The Belfast Free Press, (Democratic, formerly Smart's paper, in alluding to the recent propositions for a fusion between the Hunkers and Straightouts, says:

We have no means of knowing whether the "Straight Whigs" will join our organization, but we do know that it is a foregone conclusion with many Democrats to invite them and all other good men, who are supposed to be ready to act with us. Of necessity, when Democrats would succeed, they have no other course to take, and the straight Whigs [illegible] We ask the fusion papers not to make themselves unhappy. There are no straight Whigs who will join our ranks in opposition to the present infamous State Administration, and mere newspaper denunciations will do only not prevent it, but will be laughed at.

Bless your soul, Colonel, nobody has the least desire to prevent it. It is eminently the proper course for them to take and not one of the "fusion papers," as you call them, has ever objected, or found the least fault, with the arrangement. On the contrary, they consider it entirely just and proper, as things are now, running, that all who prefer Hunkerism should join your ranks and help you execute, to make the best fight you can. There are some men, doubtedly, whose tastes are the other way and who will join the people's party, and welcome there. But a large balance will serve as your recruits.

THE SUICIDE OF MR. HOOPER, the Teller of the Merchants' Bank, Boston, seems now to be accounted for. According to a statement in the Courier, although Mr. Hooper's cash account was found to be correct, it has since been discovered that in order to make the bad loans, borrowed, on unauthorized and illegal certificates, $25,000 of the Atlantic Bank, and a like amount of the Grocers' Bank—and that the President of the Merchants' Bank, asking for a mutual arrangement of the bills of these Banks among the cash, asked if the Teller an explanation, which, perceiving discovery inevitable, he went out immediately, purchased a clothesline and hung himself in the basement story of the Bank.

In addition to the sums obtained as above, to make his cash account square, Mr H borrowed $23,000 of private individuals. The Courier says:

"Had the Teller committed self destruction on Sunday, the burden which has now fallen on the Grocers' and Atlantic Banks, and individuals, would have fallen on the Merchants' Bank."

"Dabbling in stock operations" is supposed to be the cause of this catastrophe. The old story.

DENTISTRY.—We would call the attention of those wishing dental operations to the cards of Drs Fletcher & Henderson, in another column. The office is at 24 Harlem's Block, where Dr Fletcher has been established for several years, and has proved himself an excellent and faithful operator, and an intelligent and worthy citizen, as he steadily increasing circle of friends and patrons can testify. His partner has more recently come to the city, but shows himself a skilful and successful operator. They are constantly making improvements and additions to their office and laboratory, to meet the increasing demands of the business, especially in the manufacture and setting of artificial teeth.—We feel confident that full satisfaction will be rendered to all who may patronize them.

We learn that the sons of Mr Joseph Brown, who were thrown from a wagon on State street on Wednesday afternoon, when both of them rode at breakneck at the time, by horse coming violently on the head, and that one of them (George) was delirious until Sunday. We are happy to learn, however, that they were doing well yesterday. The accident by which they came so near losing their lives, was caused, we understand, by the flying of a kite into the horse's face. This amusement is dangerous in our streets, and should be limited to the fields and commons.

The Trustees of the Maine State Seminary are to meet at Augusta on the 4th of April, to organize the institution and to take measures for locating the same. The town which gives most to the fund will probably be selected.—There are to be thirty-five Trustees in all, but there are six vacancies as yet. Mr Richborn of the Senate has been appointed by the Governor and Council, as the State Trustee provided for in the act.

"No Fusion."—The "Straight-out" Whigs of Portland are going in for James T. McCobb for Mayor, who is the regular Democratic candidate. The "State of Maine" recommends him because he voted for Crosby for Governor in the Senate of Maine, last year, and it is made him Governor. Truly these virtuous Straight-outs have a horror of "fusion."

NATURAL CURIOSITY.—On Monday last, Mr J. Nickerson of Orrington, and his son, killed, in the river, near that place, what is supposed to be a walrus and its calf; and have brought them to this city for exhibition at Market Hall. If really a walrus, the animal is a rare specimen in these parts, and worth examination.—See advertisement.

THE MUNICIPAL JUDGE.—We learn that the provisions of the law establishing the Municipal Court in this city, are such that the Judge cannot be appointed until the 1st of June next, when the law will go into operation.

POLICE COURT, March 29th.—Wm Mann was convicted of two complaints for selling intoxicating liquors contrary to law, and fined $10 and costs on each.

The Calais Advertiser says tax has been the rage at that place, and eleven cows have arrived.

Rivet navigation is open to Albany.

Variation.

The name of an overseer in the Stark mill at Manchester who lacked a gift for making a bill of his time is George Washington Hancock.—Stark, Washington and Hancock, what an association of big names! But the fellow was fined $50 in the police court and had to give $100 not to kick another girl.

One of the best stories of the season is told by Sandy Welch, of Pittsfield who was in the country on a visit, where they had no liquor. He got up two hours before breakfast and wanted his bitters—None to be had—of course he felt bad.

"How far is it to the next tavern?"

"Four miles."

So off the thirsty soul started, walked four miles in a pleasant frame of mind and found it a confirmed liquor.

A fool in a high station is like a man on the top of a monument—everything appears small to him and he appears small to everybody.

A fiction generally appears at the end of the line and the truth—Buffalo Republic.

Sometimes on the end of a rope.

A statement has recently been made and generally copied into the newspapers as extraordinary, that a piece of land has been sold in London at the rate of two million dollars an acre. The sale held in Boston worth double that price. The owner of the lot at the corner of State and Exchange streets, occupied by Gilbert & Sons, refused $80 per foot, which is at the rate of $3,484,800 an acre.—Journal.

SABBATH MORNING READINGS on the Old Testament. By Rev John Cumming, D. D.—Book of Leviticus. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co. 1855.

The author says it is difficult to please everybody—(a fact which creditors are generally supposed to know); but is grateful for the extensive appreciation which the former volumes of his Commentaries have received. They are not intended for extremely critical works, but simply as running comments for ordinary and inattentive readers.

For sale at E. P. Duren's Bookstore, foot of Hampden street.

THE DAILY LIFE; or, Precepts and Prescriptions for Christian Living. By Rev John Cumming, D. D. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co. 1855.

The reflections contained in this volume by an author we know is not widely read, are intended, as he remarks, to set on the minds and hearts of those who are very busy by day, and very weary at evening. As these compose a very numerous section of humanity, the circle of the author's efforts is large, and he says, we hope, may be correspondingly so. To all who are critical in their or preachers or more welcome than to the industrious and faithful workers of this world.

STRENGTH OF THE NATION.—Our country is becoming more and more a commercial nation, and the annual increase in the amount and value of the tonnage of her shipping far exceeds the increase of her population. According to the Baltimore American, our total registered tonnage in the year 1830 was 512,974; in 1840 it was 899,761; in 1845 it was 1,064,172; in 1850 it was 1,58...711, and in 1854, estimated as high as 2,373,819.* The American says:

"The investment in vessels is a very large one, and the amount will perhaps astonish some of our readers. If we estimate the first cost of these vessels, steam and sailing, at fifty dollars per ton, (a very low estimate,) it will amount to $210,513,000, the annual interest on which, at the legal rate of seven millions four hundred thousand dollars. But the annual earnings of our vessels must not only include the interest on their cost, but also repairs and renewals. If we put these at equal to a total destruction in twelve years, we shall have $20,603,750, which added to the annual interest, makes $31,963,550 as the total nominal earnings of our commercial marine. This amount, then, represents the value to the labor either directly or indirectly employed in the home department of industry, resulting to navigation."

* Our total tonnage, registered and enrolled, is now over 5,000,000 tons.

DANGEROUS WOUND—SUSPICIOUS AFFRAY.—On Saturday 24th, a young man by the name of Charles Stockman, in the employ of Mr. Coomber as manufacturer on Fore Street, was opening himself by flourishing a dirk knife, when he accidentally passed it into his thigh, partially dividing the sartorious muscle and tearing artery! The hemorrhage was partially restrained by a solution of clotted blood in the wound, and by such other means as were at hand until the injured man could be taken home, and a surgeon called. Dr. J. Lord, who was called to attend, found the blood flowing anew, and that unless some ligature immediately done, the patient would be dead in less than five minutes. He immediately pressed his thumb upon the wounded artery at the groin, and sent for his case of instruments. At this time Dr. Lowe, Senior, and Dr. Clark had arrived, and a tourniquet was administered. The pressure being still continued on the artery at the groin, Dr. Lord, Junior, proceeded to cut down to the wound upon, and ligate the artery, which he separated from the nerves, vessel and tissue with great skill and success.

The operation was entirely successful, and the young man is progressing favorably, with the prospect of a speedy recovery.—Portland Advertiser.

CHILD BURNT TO DEATH.—We learn from the Waterville Mail, that a little girl, daughter of Mr. Rankin, of that town, was burnt to death a few days since, by her clothes taking fire while playing with some children about a fire. She had built her fire [illegible]

BANGOR CANDOR.—Among the [illegible] No. 1 in testimonials of the day, we would call particular attention to the "Bangor City Sixes," offered for sale by Fay, Mudge & Atwood; but which sound is but $600,000, and on an add of a railroad, upon which $350,000 has already been expended, and the several profitable leases of which is not questioned. Besides this $800,000, the entire debt of Bangor is stated to be but $150,000. The city has now a population of 18,000, and an assessed valuation of $5,000,000. There cannot be the least doubt of the soundness of the securities offered. None have ever been sold below par.—Boston Post.

THE "MYSTERIOUS TRACKS" NO LONGER A MYSTERY.—All turning speculation about the mysterious tracks of a wonderful ride. In New England these were the foot-prints of "Sir," and the mystery was solved in Massachusetts in November, in New Hampshire the present month, and will be further and conclusively "run up" in our State next week. This "Sir," however, is of universal ubiquity. In England in sport-print have made their think of the Devil. He has overthrown the Aberdeen Ministry, and it has tracks are not those of the Devil, it is certainly devilish queer. Some say they are the foot-prints of a colt—Do they know how hard such an animal will kick?—Portsmouth Journal.

THE WHEAT CROP.—THE SPRING SEASON.—We learn from the Alton Courier, the editor of which has lately made a trip across the central portion of Illinois, that, however short the crops might have been last year, it has not deterred the farmers of the State from sowing their wheat, and the result shows that there is at least twenty per cent. more sown now in wheat than in any previous year. The winter has been exceedingly favorable, and if we should be blessed with our ordinary spring, Illinois will have an amount of wealth in that single crop, which would be different to contemplate.—St. Louis Democrat 21st Ult.

"Well now, take the woman to be your wedded wife?" asked an Illinois magistrate of the masculine of a couple who stepped up before him. "Well, Squire, you must be a terrible green hand to ask me such a question as that at all. Do you think that I'd be such a plaguey fool as to go to the bar hunt and take that air gal from the quilter 'cos it will wash? sartain and 'spects and to take her? Have an your business, and don't ax no sich questions."

A young lad in Bangor sometime last week while in the woods, pulled into a skidcat, Davy Crockett fashion, with the breech of his gun after having the "first shot with water" fell, and after a well contested engagement, with teeth, he dined on one eye, and received blows from the gun on his other, the cat gave up to the young hunter, who tugged home, proud as Lucifer of his well-earned victory. The cat weighed 56 pounds!—Machias Union.

ANOTHER KANSAS PARTY.—The third party of emigrants for Kansas, under the auspices of the New England Emigrant Aid Co., left the city yesterday afternoon, by the Fitchburg railroad. The party numbered about 100 and departed in fine spirits, singing Kansas songs.—Boston Atlas, 23d.

A despatch to the Beth Mirror, states that on Monday, the City Marshal of Augusta, proceeded to the city agency at Augusta, and seized $5000 worth of liquors amidst great excitement.

A Rise Behind the Snow Plow.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher thus describes "A Rise behind the Snow-Plow":

Among the things which I have always longed to see, is the work of the snow plough, driven along the covered track, and through heaped snows drifted into deep cuts. This at length I have seen. The train came to a standstill from Cape Vincent N. Y., with two engines and a snow plow. When we reached Pierpont Manor, the conductor kindly asked me my wish to go forward and take a berth with the engineer. I was soon in position. For two days it had been storming. The air was murky and close. The snow was descending, not powerfully and dreamily, but whirled as if made mad by fierce winds. The streets were laden with snow and their inspiration buried many and dreary as a Sibilla dream. Through such scenes I began my ride on the new steering engine. Its engineer and fireman were coated with snow from head to foot, and looked like drifts which had never brushed their coats for a generation. The drifting clouds of snow was so dense and snow-laden, that the sky was coated with snow. The locomotive was frosted all over with snow—wheels, connecting rod, axles and every thing but the boiler and smoke stack. The side and front windows were glazed with crusts of ice, and only through one little spot in the window over the boiler could I peer out to get a sight of the plow. The track was indistinguishable. There was nothing to the eye to guide the engineer in one way more than another. It showed itself as we rose from a curve across the plowing through forests at random. And thus gave me a mean excitement to the scene, when two pea cocoa engines were apparently driving us on and on and outlandish precipice. But their steel were sure, and unerringly left their way along the iron road, so that we were held in our courses.

Nothing can exceed the beauty of snow in the gracefulness with which it falls, in the curvatures of its drift lines, and in the curves which it makes when streaming off on either side from the plow. It was never long the same. If the snow was thin and light, the plow seemed to play tenderly with it, like an artist thing comes things for sport, throwing it into exquisite curves, that rose and fell, quivered and trembled as they ran. Then, suddenly striking a rift that had piled across the track, the snow sprang out as if driven by an explosion, twenty and thirty feet, in jets and belts, of long-streamed sheaves of snow—that spread out like lace. Instantly, the drift past, heaven seemed by an instinct of its own to retouch and played again in sequels to curves, that rose and fell, bent and swept. "Now you'll get it," says the engineer, "in that deep cut." We only saw the first dash, as if the plow had struck the banks of snow before it could put on its graces, and shot it distracted and headlong up and down on either side, like spray or flying ashes. It was pure unreal, for the line snow rose up round the engine, and covered it like a mist, and sinking round poured in upon us in sheets and clouds, mingled with the vapor of steam, and the smoke which, from its good draft, poured out, filled the engine room and darkened it, so that we could not see each other's face distinctly except as very dimly shown by the glowing fire which [illegible]

Prof. S. Capron writes also as follows:

Dear Sir—I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygeian Vapor in a case of chronic sore throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me, that whatever may be the complication of your preparations, it is a compound, and an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all.

Yours, &c. Doctor Cheever writes:—

New York, Nov. 15, 1854.

Dear Sir—I think Highley's Dr. Harris' Hygeana as a remedy in diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had many opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the syrup and the inhaling application to the chest.

Sudden Death—More Foreign Paupers—Baker, the Murderer—Cyprians.

NEW YORK, March 29th.

Hon Thomas Woodruff, ex-member of Congress from this city, and a prominent man in the Know-Nothing party, died last evening of Apoplexy.

Collector Schell has handed Mayor Wood a letter received by him from our Consulate at Liverpool, announcing that 2,000 paupers were forwarding by the Inman Line steamers, and 329 by the Havre steamers were forwarding by the same conveyance to this port via Havre, and that 1,000 more were to follow. The author declines to give the information of the Consul. The matter will doubtless receive prompt attention from the Common Council on Monday, when the objectionable cargo arrives.

The Agent of the Board of Underwriters at Cape May, we learn, has a rumor that the fugitive murderer Baker had landed there, was very confident, and in my thought he had come on shore from the Golden Rule, which stranded on the Sewan May Bar on the 22th.

There does not seem to be any grounds for such a supposition.

The Cyprians, who were arrested last night, were the Dunn sisters, been sent to the Penitentiary. A writ of habeas corpus has been granted in some cases, returnable to-morrow, when the rights of the summary treatment will be tested.

NEW ORLEANS, 28th.

Ramon Pinto was acquitted on the 22d.

Steamer El Dorado had been again compelled to leave Sagua, off Cape Antonio, by a Spanish man-of-war, and to submit her papers to examination.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer telegraphs as follows: The imprisonment of Wm Cornell Thornton, at Havana, will cause serious difficulties. It is understood that the affair was considered in the Cabinet yesterday and to-day, and instructions have been given to despatch to Cuba a strong naval force to demand an explanation.

BOUNTY LANDS.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO

SOLDIERS, SEAMEN,

AND THEIR

Widows and Minor Children.

A BILL has passed both Houses of Congress, granting Bounty Lands to the following classes of persons, viz:

One hundred and sixty acres to all who have SERVED FOURTEEN DAYS IN ANY WAR of the United States, provided they have not received Land.

One hundred and twenty acres to all who have so served and have received 40 acres.

Eighty acres to all who have so served and have received 80 acres.

And if the soldier has deceased without obtaining 160 acres, the same allowance as above is made to his Widow, or if no Widow, to his Minor Children.

Service in the Revolution—in the War of 1812—and in all the Indian Wars, is provided for by said Act.

And all who served the above period in the Militia of the State of Maine in the year 1839, in what is known as the

AROOSTOOK WAR,

Are entitled to its benefits. Also the Militia called out by State Authority, and who served the above period, and whose services have been paid for by the United States, and their Widows, and Minor Children.

The subscriber is prepared to receive and prosecute all claims arising under said Act, with promptness and dispatch, and upon as reasonable terms as other Agents.

He has many Military Rolls and Copies in his possession, and especially very full ones of the Militia drafted for the Aroostook service in 1839.

As inducements to commit claims to his charge, he volunteers to rely upon his long and well known experience and success in those of a similar nature.

DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED AT

Dr C M JACKSON's Labratory, Pa.,

WITH EXTRACTS FROM

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as

Sick Headache, Constipation of the Bowels, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, and Joints, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Region of the Kidneys, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Diseased Liver, or Stomach.

These Bitters do not contain Alcohol or Whiskey, Spirit, Rum or Brandy, but are entirely vegetable, and the purest medicine ever combined for the use of the sick. One trial will convince the most skeptical that they are the best remedy ever offered to the American people, and its reputation and sale is rapidly extending in all parts of the country, as well as in foreign countries. The following certificate from one of the most prominent and well known Physicians and ministers, in all parts of the country is important. The following is from your old friend Mr. Wenmouth Richardson, of Philadelphia, well known as the Senior Editor of the Christian Observer, a paper extensively circulated in all parts of the United States, and one of the most influential papers of the day.

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant foreboding of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits

The proprietor intending the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

In most new and unheard articles, but one that has stood the test of a century and before the American people, and its reputation and sale is challenged by any similar preparations extant. Testimonials in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and ministers, in all parts of the country is known.

The following certificate from one of the most distinguished Physicians and ministers, in all parts of the country is known.

Philadelphia, Jan 1, 1855.

Dear Sir: I have frequently prescribed Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, and have found them a valuable remedy in cases of debility and disease of the digestive organs, and I have no hesitation in recommending them to the public.

Yours truly, JOHN D. GRIFFITH, M. D.

Dr. C. M. Jackson
